TOP OF THE PODIUM WRESTLING CENTER TO OPEN IN VIENNA

Sterling, VA—Top of the Podium, Inc. has entered into an agreement to license its brand name, proprietary marks, and various TOP-branded programs to a new 11,000 square foot wrestling center in Vienna, Virginia. The facility is set to open at 319 Mill Street, NE in the fall of 2022.

TOP Vienna features two main wrestling areas, “Takedowns” Wrestling Store, an Academic Enrichment Center, and more. The facility will offer several of TOP’s popular programs such as Discover WrestlingSM, Dulles DualsSM, and various summer camps. The center will be led by a general manager and head coach, as well as a board of directors of local wrestling, business and community leaders. The current board is David Krauskopf (Chairman), Brian Monday, Toby Eckhardt and Tom Houck, President of Top of the Podium, Inc.

Tom Houck stated, “Our vision is to help passionate leaders open and manage top-notch, community wrestling centers around the country. We’re thrilled to announce our first licensing agreement with this impressive new operation in the heart of Vienna.”

David Krauskopf added, “Top of the Podium has an outstanding brand and tremendous reputation. We share TOP’s core values and are thrilled to partner with TOP to make a major impact in our area.”

TOP Vienna plans to aggressively embrace Girls Wrestling, one of the fastest growing youth sports in America. It intends to form a girls-only team, host events for Top of the Podium’s Girls Wrestling League, and have female representation on the board of directors.

Top of the Podium is a 501c3 nonprofit organization dedicated to growing and improving wrestling. TOP offers programs in the Washington area, assists other organizations through licensing and consulting agreements, and operates a TOP 24/7 facility in Sterling, VA.
